INMAN - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced the upcoming schedule of his annual Big First Listening Tour. Each year since coming to Congress, Moran travels more than 5,000 miles to visit communities in each of the 69 counties of the First Congressional District and hear about issues important to Kansans.

"Each year I look forward to traveling to communities to listen to Kansans," Moran said. "The issues I focus on and the work I do in Washington, D.C., are based on what I learn about in these conversations. At the conclusion of this year's tour, I will have had 810 town hall meetings in hundreds of Kansas communities and learned something from thousands of Kansans."

The first of Moran's tour stops are below. The remainder of the tour stops will be determined based upon the 2008 voting schedule. Visit Moran's Web site at www.jerrymoran.house.gov/ to stay up-to-date on the tour schedule. Area residents are invited to meet with Moran at any of the
